

FLORIDA'S STATEWIDE TRANSIT TRAINING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

NATIONAL TRANSIT INSTITUTE'S SYSTEM SECURITY AWARENESS FOR TRANSIT EMPLOYEES TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

October 8, 2009

Tampa, Florida

The Center for Urban Transportation Research at the University of South Florida, in cooperation with the Florida Department of Transportation and the FTA's National Transit Institute at Rutgers University, is pleased to present System Security Awareness for Transit Employees — A Train-the-Trainer session.

Audience:

This course is directed to front-line employees and supervisors who have direct contact with the public or the vehicles and facilities used by the public. This course would also apply to operational managers and communications managers.

Description:

This one-day, six hour course covers skill sets for observing, determining, and reporting activities, packages and substances that are suspicious or out-of-place. It encourages employees to use common sense when faced with various circumstances so operations can run safely, smoothly, and efficiently. A focus is also placed upon an employee's initial priorities at the scene of a threat or incident.

This course is a Train-the-Trainer session. Participants in the session will receive an Instructor's Package that contains everything that is needed to implement the training at their agency.

Fee:

Tuition shall be waived for federal, state and local government employees who work in transportation or related areas. There are no fees to attend this training.

All training is held in accessible facilities. Please advise CUTR if you require special arrangements or materials.

A confirmation email with travel, lodging information and course location will be forwarded to each registrant. If you would like to attend this session, fill out the form below, and fax to reserve your seat.
