

Amber Reep
Senior Research Associate

Areas of Expertise

Public Transportation Safety and Security
Public Transportation Operations
Intelligent Transportation Systems
Transportation Planning
Transportation Education
Technology Systems Management

Representative Experience

- Certified Safety and Security Technician (CST) and Director (CSSD)
- USDOT Transportation Safety Security Professional (TSSP)
- Managed and administered Federal and State grant programs
- Managing the Florida Department of Transportation Statewide On-Site Technical Assistance and Transit Training Program and Florida Transit Operator Trainer Training Program
- Co-Managing the Florida Rural Transit Assistance Program
- Manage the coordination and implementation of the annual FDOT/FPTA/CUTR Professional Development Workshop
- Provided technical support in the research, analysis, design, and preparation of technical memoranda and reports for various projects.
- Managed annual conferences and meetings for the Florida Department of Transportation, Florida Public Transportation Association, Federal Highway Administration, American Public Transportation Association, and the USDOT Transportation Safety Institute
- Develop innovative transportation education, professional development and leadership programs
- Develop computer based training
- Initiate the developed of distance learning solutions for state and private organizations

Previous Positions

Sr. Technology Distance Learning Coordinator
Transportation Operations, New York State Department of Environmental Conservation
Field Technician, Dunn Engineering, consulting firm

Education

M.S., Technological Systems Management, State University of New York
B.S., Aviation & Transportation, Dowling College