Increasing Human Effectiveness

May 2-3, 2006

Center for Urban Transportation Research at the University of South Florida

Center for Urban Transportation Research
University of South Florida
4202 E. Fowler Ave-CUT100
Tampa, Fl 33620
(813) 974-9823- Amber Reep
(813) 974-7810- Molly Buffington

Florida Department of Transportation’s, Florida Statewide Technical Assistance and Training Program, Center for Urban Transportation Research
Building a high performance culture lays the foundation for developing organizational self-management and personal accountability. Presented in a dynamic, highly interactive format, people learn how to empower themselves and reach new heights of effectiveness in their professional and personal lives.

Workshop Sessions:
- Setting the Stage for Change Learners and the Learned
- Releasing the Brakes Potential and Effectiveness
- Winning Awareness Born to Win, Conditioned to Lose
- Changing Dominant Belief Systems Actions and Decisions
- It’s All About the “Tudes The Role of KASH
- Comfort Zones Getting Consistently Better Results
- Steps to Personal & Organizational Self-Esteem From Hostility to Commitment to Commitment
- The Most Powerful “Nation” Where It All Begins
- Cornerstones to Success Values, Variance, and Success
- The Power of Purpose Most Don’t Aim too High and Miss
- The Itinerary Putting Things in Motion
- Choosing Success Balance, Focus, and Discipline

The Increasing Human Effectiveness workshop is being offered through the Florida Department of Transportation’s Statewide Transit Training and Technical Assistance Programs. This workshop is an ideal professional development tool for transit supervisors, managers, and directors.

There is a $50 registration fee to attend this workshop. Registration is limited so register early to avoid disappointment.

After you register, you will receive a confirmation letter which will provide you with additional information about the workshop as well as a campus map, parking pass and hotel recommendations.

This workshop is being taught by