Internship posting

Job title: Strategy Associate – Summer 2015

Company Name: MTA New York City Transit

Type: Full-time Internship (40 hours/week)

Job description:

Strategic Initiatives, NYC Transit’s internal consulting group, is seeking Summer 2015 Strategy Associates to focus on projects in the team portfolio. Our six-member group of experienced MTA staff and former management consultants undertakes high-priority projects on the most pressing challenges facing the MTA, working directly with the agency’s senior executives. These projects typically have both strategic and operational components. The group takes a management consultant-style approach of research, fact-based analysis, problem solving and prioritization.

Associates must bring a passion for addressing the challenges of a complex system like the MTA: improving process design, governance and organizational structure based on analysis of operations, workforce, and financial data. Overlaying these challenges, solutions must be viable within the constraints of a widely-used public entity with a diverse set of constituents. In addition to strong problem solving and sophisticated analytic skills, Associates must bring communications and presentation skills and be able to engage with clients at all levels of NYCT, from senior leadership to the front line employees. Associates must be resourceful and solution-oriented at all times.

Qualifications:

- Graduate students
- Knowledgeable in statistical analysis
- Excellent in communications, writing and research skills
- Proficient in MS Office products, particularly Excel and PowerPoint

Documents to Submit for Application:

- Resume
- Cover Letter

Application Deadline: Friday, April 3, 2015

Internship Start: May 2015 (date flexible)

Internship End: August 2015 (date flexible)

Industry: Public Sector/ Government/ Transportation

Location: MTA NYC Transit, 2 Broadway, New York City, NY 10004

Pay: $20/hour, 35 paid hours per week

Submit application materials to: Robert Newhouser via email: Robert.Newhouser@nyct.com